

Addus HomeCare appoints Terri Doyle to lead Home Health Division finances

Seasoned finance expert strengthens Addus' Home Health Division

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Palatine, IL (June 15, 2010) – Addus HomeCare Corporation (Nasdaq: ADUS), a comprehensive provider of home care services, today announced the appointment of Terri Doyle, a seasoned health care finance professional, to serve as Divisional Controller of the Company's Home Health Division.

Terri Doyle brings a strong mix of executive level financial management and health care industry experience to Addus' Home Health Division, which delivers skilled home care services to over 3,000 consumers in nine states. The employees in Addus' Home Health Division include registered nurses, licensed practical / vocational nurses, and physical, occupational and speech therapists, as well as dietitians, medical social workers, home health aides and administrative employees.

"It's a personal and professional privilege for me to join Addus' Home Health Division," said Doyle. "This opportunity is exciting because I am familiar with the leadership role Addus plays in the home health care sector. I am looking forward to bringing my experience and financial project management skills to the Company so I can make a strong contribution to Addus' continued growth and financial health."

Doyle joins Addus from Elmhurst Memorial Home Health, Hospice and HME, a division of Elmhurst Memorial Healthcare, where she served for over 25 years. As Director of Finance since 1999, Doyle was responsible for the financial and accounting management for the division.

Elmhurst Memorial Healthcare includes a hospital with 427 licensed beds, home health, hospice and HME with a staff of more than 3,000 employees and 600 physicians.

“It is always our goal to attract elite leaders to Addus to help us thrive at everything we do,” said Addus CEO Mark Heaney. “Bringing in top talent like Ms. Doyle strengthens our team, our depth and our ability to focus on continuing to grow our home health business and improve our margins.”

Frank Leonard, Addus CFO adds, “Ms. Doyle comes to us with a very solid and diverse home health services background. She also has excellent experience in working and communicating with senior clinical personnel.”
