Addus HealthCare, Inc. Ranked Among Top 25 Percent of Home Health Providers in Country for 2007

Palatine, Illinois, October 15, 2007 — Addus HealthCare, Inc today announced that it has been named to the 2007 HomeCare Elite, a compilation of the most successful Medicare-certified home health care providers in the United States. This annual review identifies the top 25% of agencies, ranked by an analysis of performance measures in quality outcomes, quality improvement and financial performance.

The 2007 HomeCare Elite also indicates those providers who are included in the Top 100 and Top 500 of providers nationwide. The data used for this analysis was compiled from publicly available information.

"We applaud the success of all the providers named to the 2007 HomeCare Elite," said Bill Bassett, Senior Director of Market Strategy at OCS, Inc. "Being noted as one of the top performers in the nation in this very competitive environment shows that Addus HealthCare is dedicated to quality and performance."

Addus HealthCare's, Donna McNally, Regional Vice President-Skilled and Assisted, credits the excellent teamwork in achieving great measurements in quality improvement, quality care and financial performance that OCS looks for. Their scores in this area made them the best nation wide. These OCS scores ranked Addus HealthCare as one of the HomeCare Elite.

"Making the 2007 HomeCare Elite is commendable in today's highly competitive home health care industry," said Jonathan Stern, Group Publisher of DecisionHealth's Home Health Group. "We congratulate Addus HealthCare on being one of the top 25% best performing home care agencies in the country."

The 2007 HomeCare Elite is the only performance recognition of its kind in the home health industry. The 2007 HomeCare Elite is brought to the industry by OCS, Inc., the leading provider of healthcare informatics and DecisionHealth, publisher of home care's most respected independent newsletter Home Health Line. The entire list of the 2007 HomeCare Elite agencies can be viewed by visiting the OCS web site at www.ocsys.com.
